With much indecision as to how best to present the college life of One Thousand Nine Hundred Thirty-eight, we embarked upon our course last fall. After surmounting the usual trials and pit-falls we have amassed the information contained herein and present it as your memoirs of this year.

It is our earnest desire that in years to come this book will carry you back to the good old days—your happy, carefree days of Nineteen Hundred Thirty-eight. If, in the future, The Nineteen Hundred Thirty-Eight Mound does that we will feel that our time has been well spent.

It is with this thought in mind that once again we present for you The Mound. May you cherish it as a true friend.

MRS. JOSEPH ROSIER

Who although not directly connected with Fairmont State Teachers College has a very keen interest in it—its ideals, aims, and aspirations.

Mrs. Rosier has seen schools develop from the time of the itinerant teacher, to which class her father belonged. She studied in the Salem schools, elementary, secondary, and college. After completing her college work in Glenville College, Mrs. Rosier taught school for three years. P. E. O., a college non-Greek letter sorority, in which Mrs. Rosier holds membership has only four chapters in West Virginia.

Although she has been interested and indirectly connected with schools for some years it is for her civic activities that The Mound wishes to honor the wife of our President. At various times during the past few years she has served in the following capacities: chairman of the third annual membership campaign of the Red Cross; President of the Women's Club at a time when the membership was about seven hundred; Regent of the Major William Haymond Chapter of the Daughters of the American Revolution. Mrs. Rosier now has an honorary membership in the Business and Professional Women's Club, and the Family Welfare has been greatly aided by her able assistance. Immediately after the United States entered the World War, Mrs. Rosier organized and established the Home Service Department of the Red Cross and served for several years as Executive Secretary; this department is still very active today.

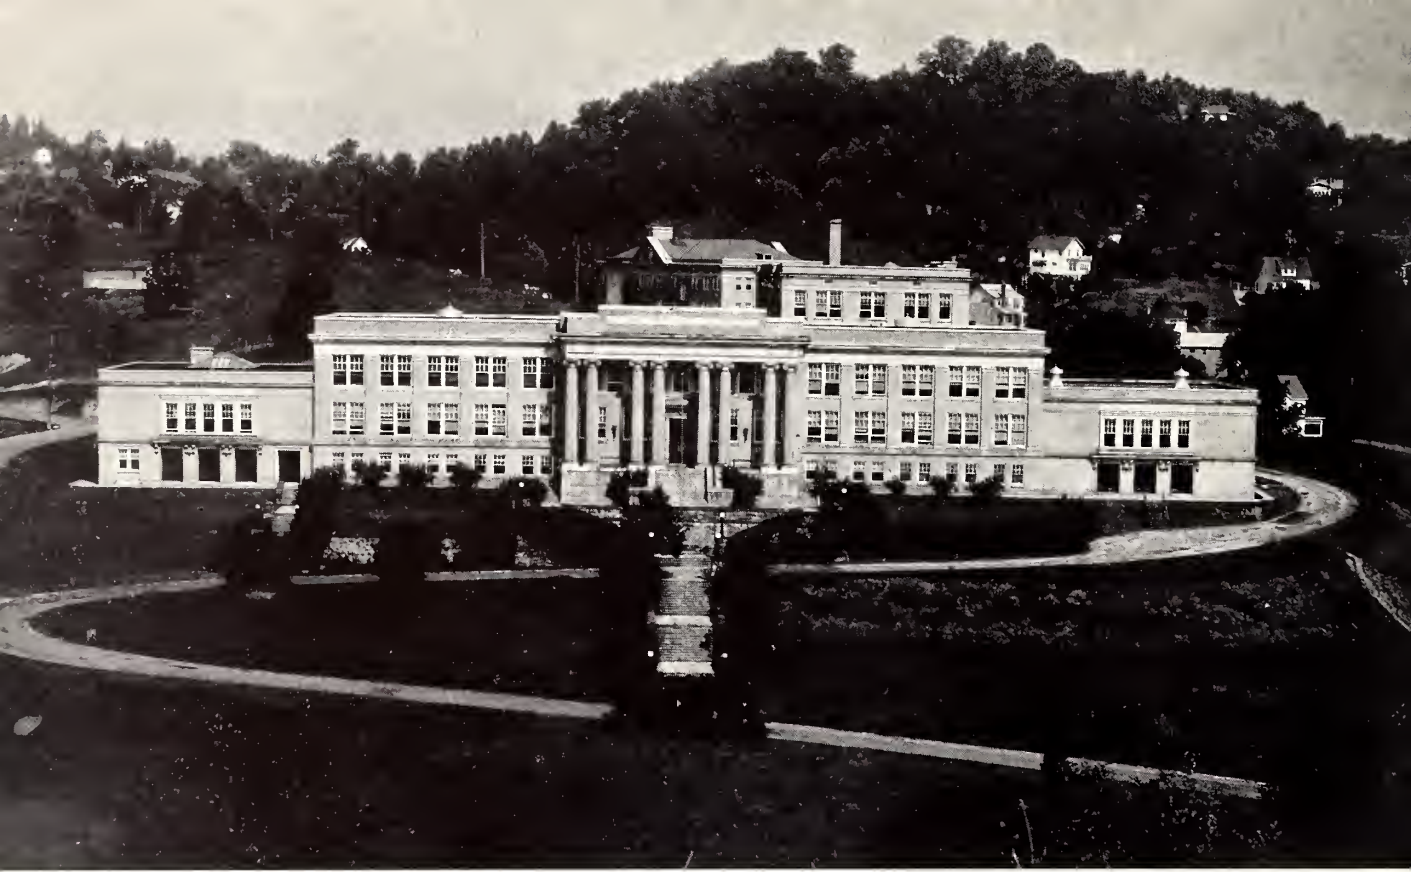

Realizing that Fairmont State Teachers College has an interest and concern in the civic life of Fairmont, The Mound Staff of Nineteen Hundred and Thirty-Eight, respectfully dedicate this book to one of the civic leaders of Fairmont, Mrs. Joseph Rosier.

FAIRMONT STATE TEACHERS COLLEGE

We feel proud of Fairmont State Teachers College today. It stands on its knoll and provides training which better fits us to work in and for society. However, if we look at its past record we may feel just a little more proud.

The present college was one of the first established as a private institution in 1865 to meet the demand for competent and efficient teachers in the free schools. Advancement has been steady from the time of the first meeting in the basement of a church to our present standing. Our school has had three homes of its own: first, at the corner of Quincy and Adams Streets; second, on Fairmont Avenue; and now on the hill.

From a student body of seventy-five in 1872 we have grown to an enrollment of over seven hundred. We have advanced from a high school standing to a college rating. In 1905, our Teachers' Training Department was added. It was in 1923, when we offered our first A. B. degree in Education, that we finally achieved a rating as a first class college. From this time only two courses, The College and The Standard Normal, have been offered.

Throughout this time the school has had the aim of preparing teachers so that education in West Virginia may be improved to the greatest possible extent.

A D M I N I S T R A T I O N

From the time a student enters Fairmont State Teachers College until he graduates, his life, while he is there and after he leaves, is directly in the hands of the faculty of the school. The number of graduates from this school testify to the fact that the guidance received while in Fairmont State College is very desirable and that the ones administering it are very capable of guiding us in our preparation for life.

It is with a firm but just hand that education and social life are mixed by the administrators through this cycle of time. By their dexterous leadership we avoid many pitfalls and develop our ability to live amicably with our fellow-students.

Student government at Fairmont State Teachers College is one of the most highly developed student governments in the state. It was inaugurated in November, nineteen hundred and seven, and since that time has steadily grown stronger and more efficient in its functioning.

In the years since its establishment, the student government has encouraged a close co-operation with the administration and faculty, a pleasing development in the social attitudes of the students, a higher degree of self-sufficiency and a manifestation of authoritative interest.

It is our earnest desire to develop our student government to the highest degree of efficiency and cooperation.

SENIOR CLASS OF NINETEEN HUNDRED AND THIRTY-EIGHT

It is with heart-felt regret that The Class of Nineteen Hundred and Thirty-eight comes to the parting of the ways. Naturally, in reflecting on what has gone before, the class is inclined to recall most vividly those pleasant and profitable relations that have sprung up as a result of life at Fairmont State College.

However, the class feels that the true worth of the knowledge and experience gained by each individual during the past four years will be most fully realized when it is used as a foundation upon which to build careers.

Having accepted so much, the least hope of the class is that it has contributed something in return toward making Fairmont State College a living and growing institution.

The class of Nineteen Hundred and Thirty-nine brings to an end its third year of success in college campus activities. Realizing that the end of our journey is near, the class has gripped the reins tightly for the final dash.

During the past three years the class has excelled in many fields of activity. Athletics, dramatics and social functions have had the full support of the Junior class. Always playing a leading role in social activities on the campus, this year the class sponsored its most outstanding event which was the Junior Prom, a highlight of the social season at Fairmont State College.

So, it is with optimism that the Junior Class looks forward to its most distinguished year upon the campus, in which it hopes to raise the standards and ideals of Fairmont State College.

The Sophomore Class of Nineteen Hundred and Thirty-eight feels that it has the makings of one of the best classes ever to attend Fairmont State Teachers College.

At the beginning of the year it sponsored the annual Dad's Day parade, game and dance. In spite of weather conditions most of the plans were carried out and the day was a success in every way.

The class has been outstanding in many fields of activity during the year. Dramatics, athletics, and social functions have had full and cooperative support from the Sophomore group.

It is the earnest desire of every member of the class to aid in making Fairmont State Teachers College the best of the best!

SENIOR NORMAL CLASS

The spring of nineteen hundred and thirty-eight brings to a close a very pleasant year for the members of the Senior Normal Class of Fairmont State Teachers College.

They have sponsored several delightful social events. On November eighteenth, they sponsored a most successful dinner for the entire class and its supervisors. On January fourteenth, a party was given for the members of the class and their guests. With the coming of spring the annual tea for the critic teachers and supervisors has been added to the social calendar. Altogether the year nineteen hundred thirty-seven and thirty-eight has been a very happy one for the Senior Normal Class.

O R G A N I Z A T I O N S

A very important phase of college life is the extra-curricular activities, the honorary and the social societies. These organizations aid very much in developing loyalty, cooperation, and a spirit of friendly rivalry, which tends to develop those qualities that are admired by all.

These fraternities and clubs have ideals and goals that make the organizations credits to the school, and that develop friendliness and brotherhood among the college people.

VERMONT - STATE - NORMAL - SCHOOL

TAU BETA IOTA

The Tau Beta Iota fraternity was founded on the campus of Fairmont State Teachers College in November, 1925. Since it was the first fraternal organization to be established at Fairmont State Teachers College its members have always worked together, bound by undying bonds of brotherhood, toward the common goal of higher social and scholastic standards.

Membership in the organization can be obtained only by meeting the rigid requirements which govern prospective members in their period of pledging. Chief among these requisites are, outstanding participation in extra-curricular activities, attainment of a high scholastic average, and character and reputation absolutely above reproach.

The fraternity has gained a reputation for its outstanding social events, and also for its annual all-male musical show written and directed by members of the organization. Other activities of the year include the T. B. I. Pep Campaign, Hallowe'en Party, Turkey Dance, Christmas Dance, and annual Spring Formal. It is a well known fact on the campus that whenever a worthwhile project is started, a T. B. I. is always lending active support.

The brothers of this fraternity have continuously striven for the two highest ideals, scholarship and felowship. In no other organization has there been the constant feeling of brotherhood which has survived in this fraternity since its origin.

SIGMA SIGMA SIGMA

The Sigma Sigma Sigma, national sorority, made its appearance on the college campus in May 1930, when it replaced the local sorority, Tau Tau Tau.

The constitution and sigmaids of Sigma Sigma Sigma were incorporated in the State of Virginia, January 18, 1919, and it is the oldest known national education sorority, with an active roll of thirty-two chapters.

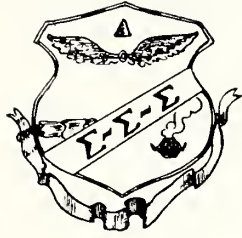

The standards of the sorority are to establish among its members a perpetual bond of friendship, to develop in them strong womanly character, and to impress them with the high standards of the teaching profession.

Believing that only through cooperation and friendship can a truly democratic spirit be developed on the campus, Sigma Sigma Sigma extends an offer of fellowship and good will toward every organization.

The most important project that the Alpha chapter of Alpha Psi Omega, National Honorary Dramatics Fraternity, undertook during the school year 1937-1938 was the sponsoring of the annual Speech Festival on our campus, in behalf of the West Virginia Inter-Collegiate Speech Association. On March 31, April 1, and April 2, most of the colleges of West Virginia sent representatives in the three speech events—extemporaneous speaking, debates, and one-act plays. During these days numerous social events sponsored by the Masquers and the society honored the guests during the Festival.

Five Senior members of Alpha Psi Omega leave the stage of Fairmont College this year to enter on the great stage of "life". They are Brooks Higinbotham, Ted Thompson, Claude Lawson, Mary Virginia Dowden, and Woodrow Sayre. All of these actors have furnished Fairmont College audiences with interesting moments of theatre during their four years at our college and it is with genuine regret and best wishes that we see them leave us.

Nu Alpha Phi, honorary French fraternity, was organized as Nous Autres Francais in 1931 by students interested in French. Its standing as an honorary fraternity was recognized in March 1936 when the name of the society was changed. The primary purpose of the organization is to offer encouragement and opportunity to French honor students to speak French, and to stimulate an active interest in this language and the nation which uses it.

The accomplishment of this aim was furthered by the presentation of a program in French for the student body, by the continuance of the "French Corner" in the Columns and by a tea given in February. Nu Alpha Phi is quickly taking its place as one of the outstanding fraternities on the campus.

The Columns is the student newspaper of Fairmont State Teachers College. It is a four page, eight column, weekly publication.

The Columns received First Class Honor Rating in the 1936-37 contest sponsored by the National Scholastic Press Association.

The outstanding event of the year for The Columns and the Department of Journalism was the 16th annual West Virginia Inter-Collegiate Press Conference which was held on the Fairmont campus December 9, 10, and 11. Delegates from all colleges in the state attended, making the conference the largest in the association's history. Lawrence Brown, managing editor of The Columns, was secretary-treasurer of the state organization.

INTER-FRATERNITY COUNCIL

The Inter-Fraternity Council is an organization consisting of one representative from each of the nine social fraternities and sororities on the campus. The council has its own constitution and full power and authority over fraternal affairs.

The organization sponsors an annual Pan-Hellenic dance to which only members of Greek Letter organizations are invited.

This organization, more informally known as the Letterman's Club, was organized in 1935. It was originated by the young men who had been awarded school letters by the Athletic Council, for their outstanding participation in athletics.

This organization was founded for a four-fold purpose: to interpret the purpose of athletics in Fairmont State Teachers College as it is recognized by the administration, to give awards for athletic service; to create higher social and academic standards among fellow athletes, and to bring the athletic department closer to the student body and the faculty.

This fraternity also publishes the annual "Dad's Day" football program and acts as host at the Football Student Mix.

GIRLS CHORAL CLUB

Accompanist.....Sue Brill

Director.....Miss Mary B. Price

This particular organization, in name, was founded in 1933 by a small group of college girls. This year it has the largest enrollment since it was organized. The members are carefully selected from girls who are especially interested and talented in voice, to form a well-balanced group.

The club has presented several outstanding programs, such as special music for the general meeting of the Woman's Club of Fairmont; an evening of music for the Highland M. E. Church; a recital inaugurating National Music Week and programs at various High Schools including Grafton and West Milford. It also sponsored a very successful concert by the Men's Glee Club of West Virginia University, at the West Fairmont High School Auditorium.

The dramatic season of 1937-1938 at Fairmont State Teachers College, as sponsored by the Masquers Club, included four three-act plays of a varied nature. On November 22, 23, and 24, Brooks Higinbotham played the leading role of "Uncle Tom's Cabin," an old-time melodrama. The second play "Everyman" played a revival after five years on January 17 and 18, with Lloyd Bennett, a freshman, acquitting himself very satisfactorily in the title role. The third production was "Whistling In The Dark," a comedy melodrama of modern gangster life. Harold Scott, a sophomore, played the leading role, and Jack Corrothers and Eldon Montgomery played outstanding roles. The fourth and last production, May 10, was "Fresh Fields," a modern comedy. All of these major productions were directed by Mr. L. A. Wallman.

The Masquers entrant for the Speech Festival, which was held here March 31, April 1 and 2, was Lynn Rigg's one-act comic episode of Oklahoma, "Knives From Syria." The cast was composed of Claude Lawson, Florena Evans, Charles Armstrong, and Mabel Everly, who was named on the All-State Cast by the Critic Judge, Mr. Buell C. Whitehill, of the University of Pittsburgh.

Athletics at Fairmont State Teachers College is what one might expect to find in Utopia, not evident from undefeated seasons, but that representing a friendly spirit and good will.

The lesson which the athlete learns of fair play and honesty will be one to carry over into any occupation which he may pursue. Participation in athletics serves to build character and mental strength as well as physical stamina.

Since Jasper H. Colebank came to Fairmont as athletic director and head coach in 1924, the "Fighting Teachers" have become an institution in themselves, and one in which we take the utmost pride.

—Robert B. Moran '39

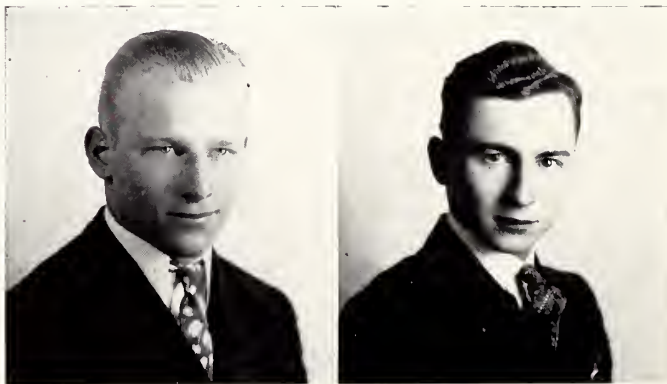

JASPER COLEBANK
Athletic Coach

This trio of hard-working individuals answered the every need of the football team, both on and off the gridiron. Head Coach Jasper Colebank has been here so long that writers have run out of new things to say about him. All the Mound staff wishes to say is that it hopes he stays here twice as long as he already has been here.

Charles Fortney captained the "Fighting Teachers" this past fall in a most capable fashion and is deserving of every honor bestowed upon him. Tom Manley, the team's manager, carried out his duties in a par excellence manner and Coach Colebank's only hope is that he has prepared an assistant as capable as he has been this year.

John Rendel Thomas, better known as "Benny", was a valuable man as assistant coach and we cannot tell you in words how we appreciate your efforts. May you be with us again next fall.

Third Row—McDaniel, Allen, Lively, Hawkins, Roberts Ankrom, Jones, Nay, Eberly, Ashcraft, A. Andrick.

Fourth Row—Conaway, Riggs, Straight, Barnes, Coppage, McCarty, Linard, Zinn.

CHARLES FORTNEY, End

"Charlie" captained the team in his fourth year as a regular. Fortney made a habit of playing hard clean football and it was a treat to see him at terminal. He will be among the missing when the next season opens.

ALBERT FULTZ, Fullback

"Buzzy" completed his fourth season as a regular under the Colebank regime in a most capable fashion. Fultz did the bulk of the punting and passing and did his share of the ball-carrying in a spectacular manner. His absence next fall will be noticed.

RICHARD WARE, Center

"Dick" played his second season for the Colebankers and turned in a good performance on all occasions. Good centers are not a rarity here, but if possible Ware should receive a higher ranking for his excellent work.

WILLIS DAVIS, Halfback

"Davey" could pick the holes with the best of backs and was an adept pass-receiver on all occasions. His runs from punt formation and line thrusts earned him well-deserved laurels on all sides.

HAROLD DUVALL, Quarterback

"Deacon" climaxed a brilliant career under the Maroon and White banner and turned in his most valuable season this past fall. Duvall was the local speed merchant and caused our opponents' many heartaches.

SAMUEL GRAKE, Guard

"Sam," a diminutive powerhouse, was one of the spark-plugs of the team. Always a heady player, Grake could be found in there playing a steady and consistent brand of ball throughout the season.

EDMUND BILLINGHAM, Halfback

"Ed" was another sophomore who answered the call to arms in a brilliant way. He showed more dash than ever before and was always feared by the opposition. His blocking paved the way for the speedier backs.

DAVID ROWAND, Guard

"Dave" played a sparkling brand of ball in his first year under the Maroon and White Banner. His defensive work was a highlight of the year, and his ability to open up holes on the offensive a treat for the spectators.

ELLIS ENOCH, End

"Bud" saw some fine work as a substitute in this, his first year with the "Fighting Teachers." Not greatly heralded in advance notices, Enoch caused the coaches to open their eyes with his work on the end of the line.

ANGELO CRESCENZI, Tackle

"Angie," a husky lad, came through with flying colors this season and his brilliant performance and head work earned him the captaincy of next fall's eleven. Crescenzi will make the "Fighting Teachers" a real leader.

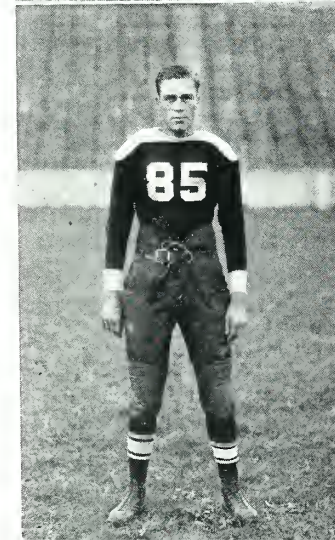

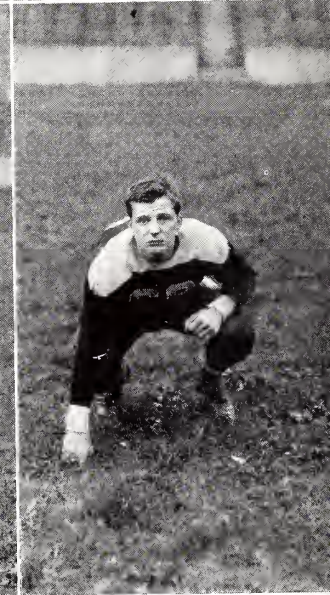

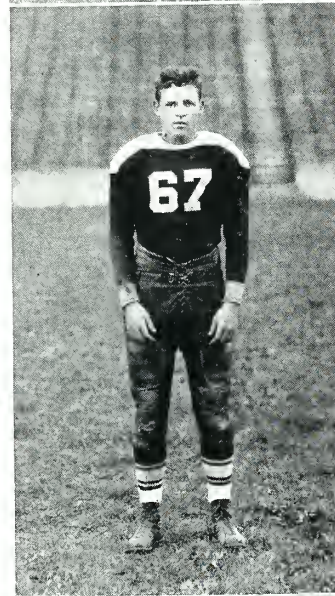

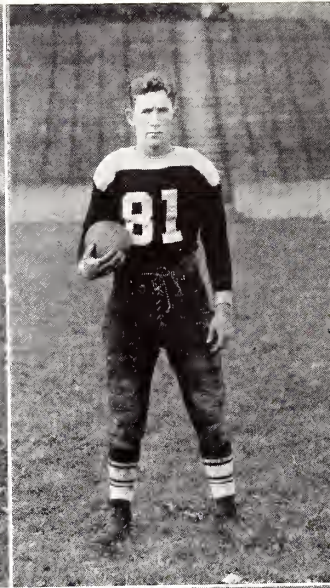

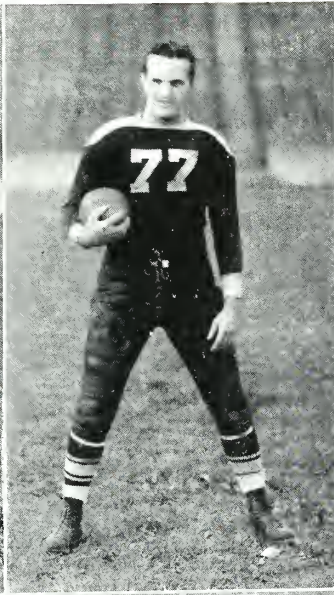

JUNE ANDRICK, Guard

This lad was one of Coley's most adept pupils and a hard-working lineman. His aggressiveness and active head work garnered June many laurels on the gridiron. He'll be back too.

JAMES OWEN, Tackle

"Jimmy" landed a berth on the first string this season and fulfilled Coach Colebank's expectations in a worthy manner. A giant in stature, Owen was a bulwark in every department of the game.

Coaches Jasper Colebank and "Benny" Thomas had seven members of the 1936 eleven on hand at the start of the season, but injuries and a late start in pre-season practice nullified what might have been a highly successful season for the Maroon and White.

Bare statistics do not altogether speak for themselves concerning this gridiron machine. Although the "Fighting Teachers" chalked up but one victory, tied another, and lost five games during the season the team was regarded as a "comer" and big things are expected for F. S. T. C. on the gridiron in 1938.

FAIRMONT 0; GLENNVILLE 27

A big fast-charging eleven from Gilmer county scored in each of the four quarters and capitalized on all but one scoring opportunity to take a 27-0 victory from the Colebankers in the opening game of the season. Edwards' 62-yard gallop for a tally was the longest run of the game.

FAIRMONT 0; CONCORD 13

Jimmy Callaghan's powerful Mountain Lions took advantage of numerous penalties and several 'breaks' of the game to upset the locals in the second tilt of the year played at Athens. A steady downpour of rain handicapped the Fairmont passing attack. Concord's scores were made in the opening period and in the final seconds of play.

FAIRMONT 7; CALIFORNIA 9

An automatic safety in the first quarter spelled defeat for the Maroon and White after both elevens scored a touchdown in the second quarter. In 1936 the two machines battled to a scoreless tie, and this fall's game was clearly a toss-up for supremacy.

FAIRMONT 0; SHEPHERD 0

The Fighting Teachers failed to win their next game by virtue of an act of fate when they rolled up 13 first downs to none for the Rams, but still were only able to come out with a scoreless tie. The local outfit ran up over 200 yards from scrimmage and tossed the visitors for a yard loss, but a rugged Shepherd defense prevented a Fairmont tally.

FAIRMONT 6; SALEM 0

In the "biggest" game of the year on foreign soil, the Teachers nosed out a scrappy Salem Tiger team by a single touchdown margin. An aerial from Fultz to Duvall accounted for the game's only score late in the second quarter, while a stone-wall defense by the Colebankers prevented any Salem scoring.

FAIRMONT 13; WEST LIBERTY 14

The Maroon and White lost their final home game of the season when Joe Bartell's machine nosed them out, 14 to 13, after a thrill-packed tussle. The contest was marked by many long runs and passes that kept a crowd in an uproar throughout the game. Kuznicki for the Hilltoppers and Duvall for Fairmont each tallied two touchdowns.

FAIRMONT 0; POTOMAC STATE 32

A swivel-hipped halfback by the name of Harley Kuhl spelled defeat for the Fighting Teachers when he scored three touchdowns on spectacular runs after tallying on the opening play of the game on a 60-yard jaunt. The Catamounts continued to shake Kuhl loose for touchdown runs, and with Goodwin and Gruber adding a score each, the final gun found the Colebankers on the short end of a 42-0 count.

FAIRMONT 0; BETHANY 12

One completed pass and another intercepted aerial provided John Knight's Bisons with a victory over the Fairmont machine in the final game of the year. The Bethany gridiron was a snow-covered field that kept running attacks down to a minimum.

BASKETBALL

Harold (Deacon) Duvall led the "Fighting Teachers" through the 1937-38 basketball season in a highly successful manner. His brilliant ability inspired the team on to greater heights on many occasions while his natural ability as a leader filled the breach in the "clutch." "Deacon" made this, his fourth season as a regular, his most worthy year for the cage quintet. Besides playing a veritable air-tight defensive game, Duvall was the team's second highest scorer, tallying well over 200 points from his guard position.

Fraley Louden was an ideal basketball manager last winter and administered to the needs of the squad in a capable style. His cheery manner and clever personality were an added asset to the team, while needless to say he handled the financial and other tasks efficiently.

HAROLD DUVALL, Guard

The captain of the Colebankers was "Deacon" Duvall, a fast, clever worker who was instrumental in many of the locals' victories. His sharpshooting ability coupled with an uncanny knack of being able to foresee the opponents' movements made Duvall a great guard for Coach Colebank. A four-letter man, Duvall graduates in high honor from athletic wars.

ALBERT FULTZ, Guard

Here is a player who will go down in the annals of F. S. T. C. history as one of the outstanding basketball players to ever don a Maroon and White uniform. "Buzzy" played four seasons of brilliant basketball and climaxed his cage career this season by leading the team in scoring when he looped in well over 200 points from his position at guard. His absence will be keenly felt in every field of athletics.

RICHARD WARE, Center

A late start in practice handicapped "Dick" in landing a regular berth on the team, but he saw some valuable service and gave a good account of himself on many occasions. Being ambidextrous helped Ware out-wit his opponents in many games. He'll be back too.

WILLIAM THOMPSON, Forward

"Bill", a freshman, was a part-time regular from the start of the season and handled himself expertly at all times. His lightning-fast work on the floor enabled him to out-manuever his opponents in caging many a two-pointer. Over 150 points were marked up for this lad during the season's tour.

EDMUND BILLINGHAM, Guard

"Ed" was handicapped by his slight build, but nevertheless made good his boast to "make" the team this year. Although a guard at heart, Ed made Coach Colebank a dependable forward. Not a high-scoring cager, Billingham could be looked forward to doing his share of the work and a little more.

GLENN TEETS, Forward

The fastest man on the team was the diminutive former Aurora flash. Glenn failed to land a first string position, but gave his best when called to fill the breach in a substitute role. Only a sophomore, Teets will gather his laurels in the coming years.

BLAINE ANKROM, Forward

"Ank" played a sparkling brand of ball throughout the season and on several occasions his brilliant work earned him starting assignments. A hard worker, Ankrom's aggressiveness accounted for many of the "Fighting Teacher" scores from beneath the hoop.

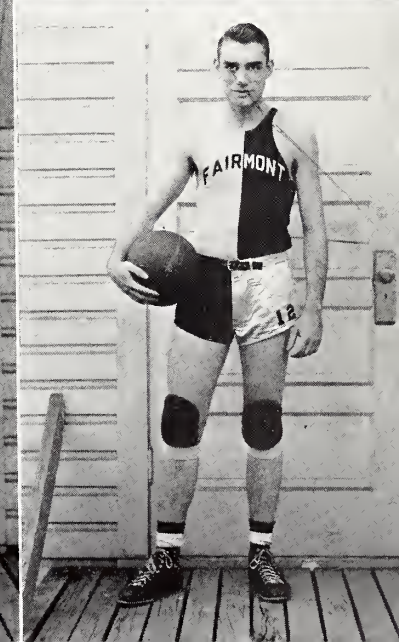

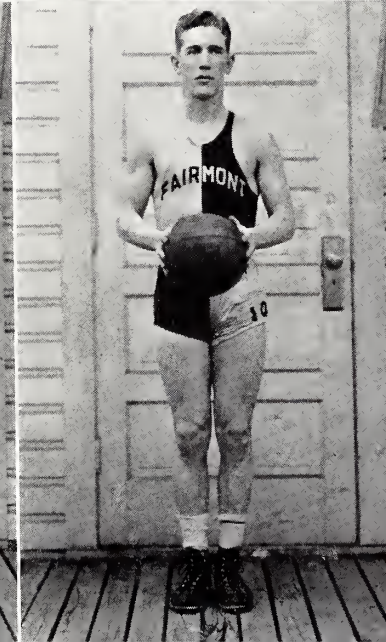

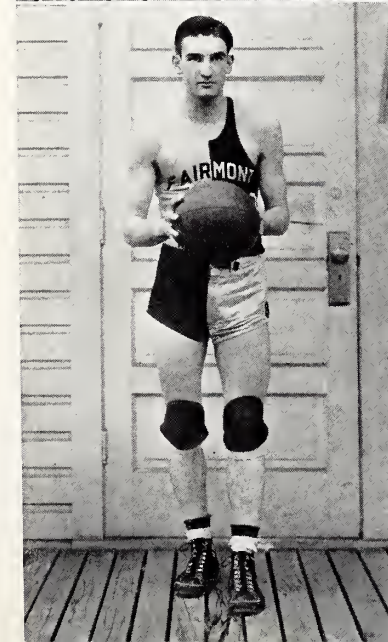

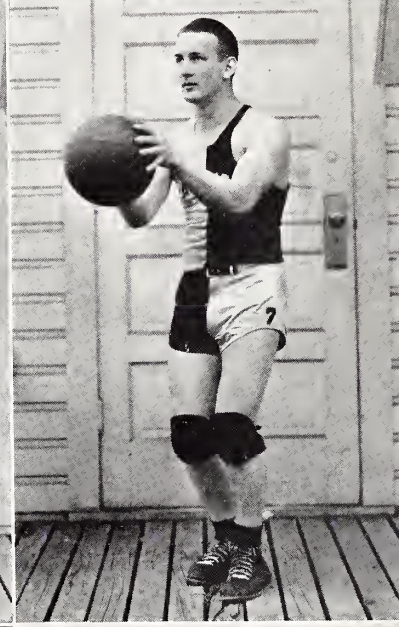

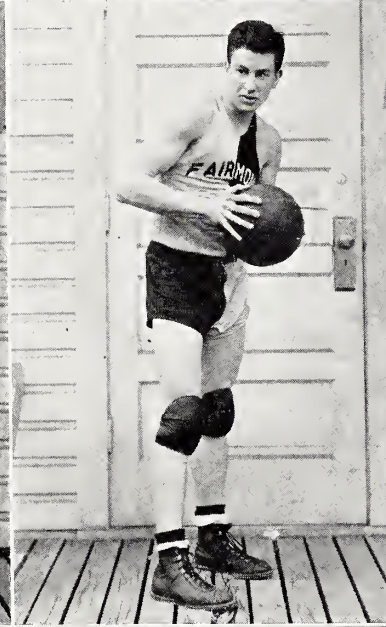

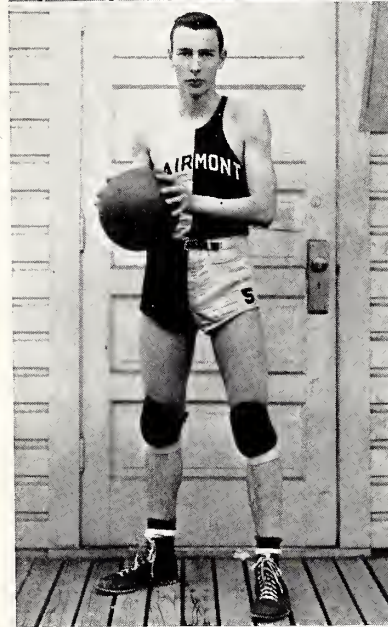

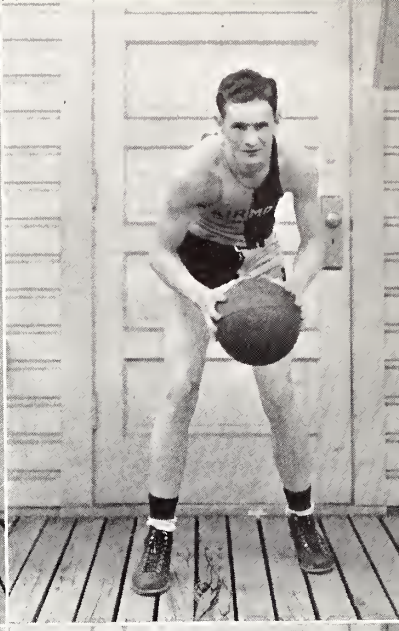

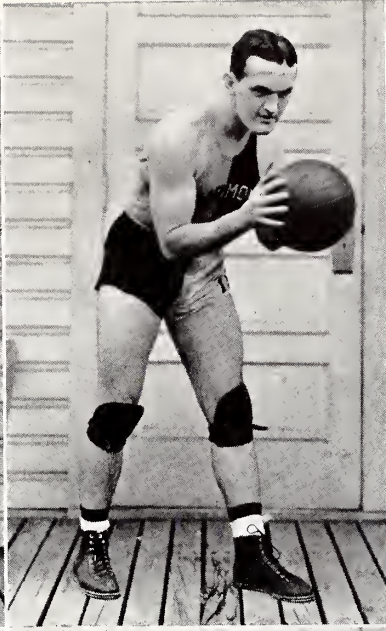

WILLIS DAVIS, Forward

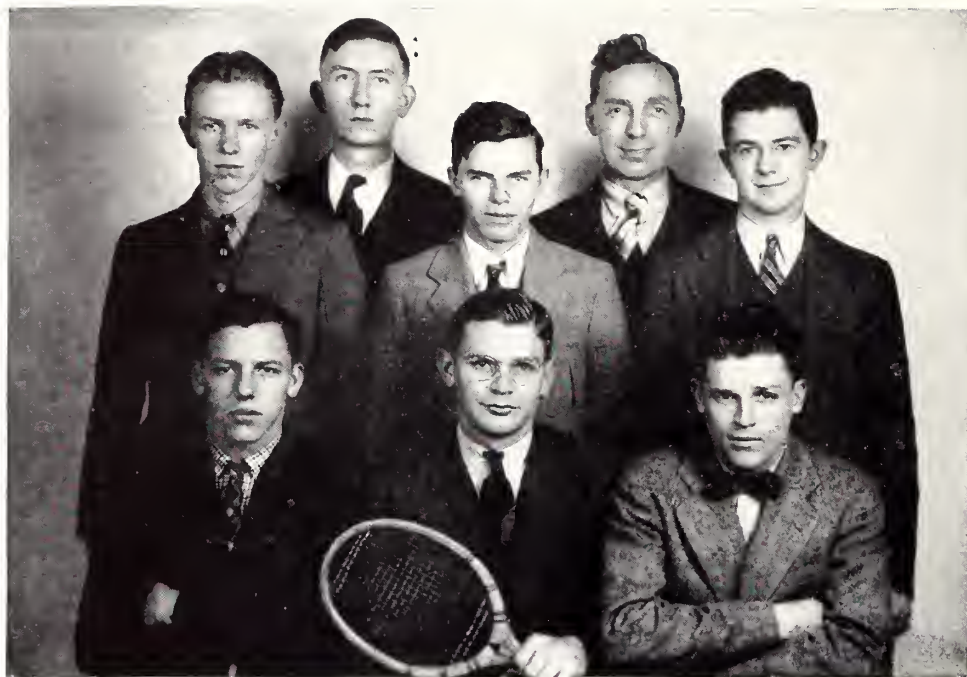

Fast and of stocky build, Willis saw much service during the season. Although he failed to get in every game Davis turned in good performances whenever called upon, and should be in a varsity suit next winter.

NED PENCE, Center

Here's another freshman who landed a regular berth from the start of the season. His height was valuable to the team in work beneath the hoop, and his defensive work was an asset to him. The next three years should bring added laurels to this future star.

TENNIS

The Tennis Team of Fairmont State College, due to the weather, played only five of the nine matches that were scheduled to be played. Of these they won one.

The team had four players from the previous year, these being Orin Ford, the Captain, Harold Duvall, the No. 1 man, Charles Witt, the No. 4 man, and George Williamson, a senior, the No. 3 man.

The rest of the team was composed of new men, who look very promising for the coming year, these being Blankenship, Reed, Sharp, and Powell.

Coach C. A. Lindley has built up a team which has all the promises of being able to stand up against any college team of the state. Due to the inability of some of the outstanding players to participate in the matches and the inexperience of the others, they were not so successful in winning their matches, but in every match the boys put up grand fights.

Matches

BASEBALL

INCLEMENT weather prevented the baseball nine from getting the proper amount of pre-season training, but, nevertheless, Coach Jasper Colebank was able to mold together a nine that displayed a clever brand of ball throughout the season. Only four members of the 1936 varsity were on hand for positions, while the remainder of the lineup was chosen from good first-year material. And, despite the fact that the team went through a six-game season without a single triumph, the nine fought with a will and proved that they were real "fighting Teachers."

As a nucleus for the club, Coach Colebank had Veterans Bernie Joyce, Buzzy Fultz, Paul Kundratik, and Charles Fortney returning to the diamond for another year. Joyce and Kundratik held down infield berths along with Lou Piccola and Jimmy Barry, while Fultz guarded the outfield along with Willis Davis, Glenn Teets, Orval Hammon, and Leo Roberts. Fortney was behind the plate, while "Cowboy" Duling, Jimmy Owen, and Denver Wotring turned in some clever work on the mound along with Outfielder Fultz.

The nine this spring is expected to be a real machine with practically all of last season's team on and, and the host of new stars will likely boost the local baseball stock.

THE JUNIOR PROM

One of the most outstanding social events of the entire school year is the Junior Prom, which is sponsored and planned entirely by the Juniors in honor of the graduating class. Invitations are issued by the Junior Class to every Senior and Faculty member. The Junior Class is represented by one of the Junior girls who reigns as Queen of the Prom. The court of Her Majesty the Queen is completed by one representative from each social organization, known as princesses. The Junior Prom as an annual event is always anticipated very much by the upper classes.

OUTSTANDING SENIORS

As material evidence of the highest honor given on Fairmont State Teachers College Campus, a gold key is given to the four most outstanding seniors. This year the basis of judgment were: personality, scholarship, and participation in and attitude toward the various fields of collegiate activity throughout their college years. Those elected this year are:

Rex Bradley, son of Mr. and Mrs. F. A. Bradley of Paden City, is a member of Zeta Sigma, national social fraternity of which he was president and the following national honorary societies; Lambda Delta Lambda, physical science; Kappa Delta Pi, education. He has served as student body president, member of Athletic Council, and a Field Representative of the W. Va. Federation of College Students for the 1937-1938 term, in addition to supporting himself for two years.

Forrest Talbott, son of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Talbott of 833 Field Street, Fairmont, had served as president in these organizations: Student Christian Association, Social Science Club, and Pi Gamma Mu. For three years he has been student manager of the debate squad and booster speaker for the college. During the past two years he has served as non-fraternity representative on the student council and as freshmen councilor. Although partially self-supported, he has maintained a high scholastic record.

Nellie Shircliffe, daughter of Mrs. Alice Shircliffe, Cumberland, Md., is a member of Alpha Delta Chi, social sorority, and president of Kappa Delta Pi. She has been an active member of the Girls Choral Club and the College Chorus for four years besides singing in a local church choir. She has been on the Executive Council, vice-president of the Student Christian Association, secretary-treasurer of the Junior Class and a princess at the Junior Prom. In addition to representing all honorary organizations on the student council and being active in dramatics, she has been partially self-supported.

Woodrow Sayre, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. Sayre of 122 Kern Avenue, Clarksburg, is a member of Sigma Tau Gamma, social fraternity, and the following national honorary societies: Alpha Psi Omega, dramatics; Kappa Delta Pi, education; Pi Gamma Mu, social science. He has been vice-president of the Junior Class, chairman of the Junior Prom, President of the Student Christian Association, President of the Senior Class, and a member of the Student Council, Executive Committee, and College Chorus, besides being self-supported throughout college.

THE CAMPUS DAY BOOK

Let's take a brief squint at the happenings on the campus, which have somewhat eased the continuous grind of classes. (We hope it was continuous.)

Freshmen registration was held on Sept. 13, on the fourteenth those of us who were fortunate enough to be upper classmen (or were we?) found ourselves duly registered students.

On Sept. 24 the Student Body gave a Student Mix and it certainly was a "mix." We were so mixed up we did not know who we came with. (Come to think of it maybe we weren't with anyone.) The T. B. I.'s and Gammas entertained with an expense dance; 'mid the corn and hay a "Hay" of a good time was had by all.

Dad's had their day on the 23, but I wonder who had the best time at the dance? The only dad we saw at the dance was Vance Trimble.

Orchids to the Gammas for their lovely tea of Nov. 5, the faculty and organizations were well entertained even though it was formal.

The T. B. I. Turkey Dance was enjoyed by all who attended. On the 24th we could all breathe freely. Reason: Thanksgiving Holidays.

The Christmas season didn't pass without some celebrations, namely the Omicron Pi closed party, Zeta Sigma closed party, T. B. I. Christmas dance, the Alpha Delta Tea, Masquers banquet, Gamma Christmas formal, and the Tri Sigma's closed party.

After the usual "wet" Christmas holidays we returned on Jan. 3 to find the faculty still waiting for us. (Cheerfully we hope.)

The T. B. I.'s closed party was so closed we still have not heard about it.

Again on Jan. 31 we enrolled for the second semester. The Alumna were guests at the Homecoming on the 11th of February, the first social event of the second semester. We cannot skip over the month of February without mentioning the Tri Sigma's Valentine Tea which was given for the faculty and organizations. The gals of Morrow Hall entertained the promising young men of the campus at open house on March 4.

The Gammas certainly handed it to the T. B. I. boys did they not fellows, maybe they are right after all, who knows?

We would like to congratulate the Masquers and Alpha Psi's for the way they delightfully entertained the members of the speech conference.

As April rolls around we find the learned people of the Kappa Delta Pi gathering here and some wonderful lectures were heard.

The Alpha Delt's completely overwhelmed us with "H-e-r-e C-o-m-e-s T-h-e S-h-o-w-b-o-a-t."

April and May are in the near future, if, however you want a detailed account of the formals, the Prom and the other events there's ALWAYS Brooksie's Column you know. (It's in the Columns.)
